

THE JOURNAL.

We learn that a letter has been received in this City stating that by the Caledonia was received the required amount of bonds, and the subscriptions for the completion of our Canal. The election for Trustees took place on the 10th inst., last Monday.

WANTED at this Office, a lad 15 or 16 years of age to learn the Printing business.

We acknowledge the receipt of Nos. 9 and 10 of MAUNDER'S Treasury of History. Two more numbers, we believe, completes this valuable work.

THE LATE ELECTIONS—THE "UNION."

The confident predication of the editor of the "Union" (a gentleman presumed to know something about the politics of Virginia) that the delegation would number as many as twelve Locofocos, is thus blown to the winds, and with it his other predication, equally confident that the Administration would have a majority of at least ten in the next National House of Representatives: for, he assumed, that consummation so devoutly wished for by "the powers that be," was to be secured and made certain by the election in Virginia. Upon that election depended the complexion of the popular of the next National Legislature!

How suddenly are dashed the fondest hopes and the most matured calculations of this veteran political prognosticator!

Let us glance at the state of parties in the next House of Representatives as far as the election have been held. Twenty States have rendered their verdicts as follows:

Whigs.	Locof.	VACANCIES.
Maine.....	1.....	2.....
New Hampshire.....	0.....	2.....
Vermont.....	3.....	1.....
Massachusetts.....	10.....	0.....
Rhode Island.....	1.....	0.....
Connecticut.....	4.....	0.....
N. York.....	23.....	11.....
N. Jersey.....	4.....	1.....
Pennsylvania.....	17.....	0.....
Delaware.....	1.....	0.....
Virginia.....	7.....	7.....
S. Carolina.....	0.....	7.....
Georgia.....	4.....	4.....
Florida.....	1.....	0.....
Arkansas.....	0.....	1.....
Texas.....	0.....	2.....
Missouri.....	1.....	0.....
Illinois.....	1.....	6.....
Michigan.....	0.....	3.....
Ohio.....	11.....	10.....
88.....	69.....	8.....

The Whig majority in these twenty States, including the "Native," Mr. Levin, of Penn., who usually votes with the Whigs, it will be seen, is nineteen. The editor of the Union has laid down and published the prediction, the result in the States yet to elect will be as follows:

Whigs.	Locof.
Maryland.....	2.....
N. Carolina.....	3.....
Alabama.....	3.....
Louisiana.....	3.....
Tennessee.....	6.....
Kentucky.....	3.....
Indiana.....	8.....
Iowa.....	2.....
Wisconsin.....	2.....
Maine, vacancies.....	4.....
N. Hampshire.....	2.....
Rhode Island, vacancy.....	0.....
Virginia.....	1.....
27.....	46.....
Already elected.....	88.....
115.....	115.....

This would leave the House a tie; but if the editor of the official organ is as wide of the mark in regard to the result in the states yet to elect, as the results in Connecticut and Virginia have proved him to have been in regard to these States, where he gave the Whigs five members less than they appear to have elected, a majority sufficiently large for all useful purposes—say from twelve to eighteen—may safely be counted upon in the next House of Representatives by the Whig party.

The Richmond Enquirer endeavors to turn Gen. Taylor into ridicule by a Parody on his nomination, under the title of Gen. Tom Thumb and the subriquet of "Young Free and Frisky." We give a specimen of the article in the following would-be witticisms on Gen. Taylor:

"Resolved, That we deem that the eminent virtues, distinguished abilities, and memorable services of Gen. Tom Thumb give him a peculiar fitness for, and a paramount claim to, the highest office in the gift of a free and enlightened people.

"Resolved, That the proceeding of this meeting be signed by the chairman and Secretary, and published in the newspapers generally; and that one copy be printed on white satin, in letters of gold, and forwarded to 'Free and Frisky' by the chairman."

"Play out the play," gentlemen; but before the curtain falls, you will find out that Gen. Taylor is not one, who can be turned into ridicule, with impunity, by any party who attempts it.
